

Database Tools Issues

We are experiencing some severe issues with our database tools and this will have an impact on the following activities:

- invoicing
- processing of applications
- issuing of approval letters
- updating the website
- emails response

We are doing our best to bring operations back to normal. We hope to have the situation regularized by 5th May 2017.

We appreciate your understanding and patience.

